

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

April 13, 1934.

MAC:

Tell him I should like to see him, but ~~has to~~ have a definite rule that I cannot see anybody on pending legislation while the bills are in committee, because that is solely a congressional matter. But after bills come out of committee and are passed one house, I would be very glad to see him.

F.D.R.

A large, hand-drawn oval containing the handwritten initials 'FDR' in a cursive script.