

January 27, 1943

Dear FF:

These are my impressions about your opinion in the Chenery case. I have not sent them to the printer and will not until I get your impressions of my impressions. I assume that the opinion will be delayed by a dissent so that if I decide to ride a separate horse there will be plenty of time to get him bridled.

RHJ