Dear Stanley:

As to your memorandum:

(1) A friend of mine is director of General Motors. He is terribly worried about the size of the company in terms of (a) inefficiency
(b) stifling competition
(c) curbing individual initiative

(2) The men who know more about the problem than any other are O'Mahoney and Celler.

They can "curl your hair" on the awful fate of small business resulting from our decisions.

(3) A speech by you urging atomization of big business would certainly be welcome.

Yours faithfully,

Justice Stanley Reed
U.S. Supreme Court
Washington 25, D. C.
