PERSONAL AND CONFIDENTIAL

Mr. Wayne Valis
Office of Public Liaison
The White House
Washington, D.C.

Dear Wayne:

I was delighted to have the opportunity to meet you and Bill Baroody this past week. I appreciate enormously your and his willingness to meet with me and discuss the matter that Ted and I brought with us.

In accordance with your request, I'm enclosing a representative group of speeches which I have given since I have been at the Commission. I have omitted those that I thought might be boringly technical, but have tried to give you a pretty good cross section of my thinking on problems which for the most part, are pending at the Commission. If I can give you any further information about my thinking on any topic, or furnish you with other speeches, I will be more than glad to do so.

I'm also enclosing a resume which may be of interest to you and Bill. The articles indicated were all published prior to the time I came to the Commission. Since I have been here a number of my speeches have been published in various places, such as The Business Lawyer (the publication of The American Bar Association Section on Corporation, Banking and Business Law), Financial Executive, Journal of Accountancy and so on.

Again it was a pleasure to meet with you and Bill. I would hope we'll have an opportunity to talk further.

Sincerely,

A. A. Sommer, Jr.

P.S. Incidentally, all the speeches I have given here have been of my own composition so I take full responsibility!
